THE QUINCY FAMILY.

QUINCY.—On Prince's venerable List of Subscribers, under the letter Q, we have "Quincy, The Hon. Edmund, of Braintree, Esq. Quincy, The Hon. John, of Braintree, Esq., Speaker of the Honourable House of Representatives."

[Through the kindness of Miss Quincy and Gen. Samuel Andrews, we are able to furnish the following sketch of the Quincy family, from original manuscripts :—]

Edmund Quincy of Wigsthorpe, Northamptonshire, m. Ann Palmer, Oct. 14, 1593. Their son Edmund was baptized May 30, 1602. He m. July 14, 1623, Judith Pares, and lived on his estate at Achurch, near Wigsthorpe. He here was living in 1627, when the following curious entry shows he had become a Puritan : "1627, Meh. 15, a child of Edmund Quincy baptized elsewhere and not in our parish church." The faulty state of the Public Records in this country prevent our tracing the family to an earlier date ; but we note that the arms of Edmund Quincy are the same as those of De Quincy, second Earl of Winchester. There have always been families of gentry of this name in this county.

W. H. WHITMORE.

Edmund and Judith Quincy came from England with Rev. John Cotton, and arrived in Boston, Sept. 4, 1633. He was freeman, 1634, deputy to the General Court, May 14, 1634, and received a grant of land at Mount Wollaston in 1635, where he died soon after, aged 33. Issue :
